Gathering Words

Whitney Janzen-Pankratz

One: God, the Creator of the universe, sees you and cares about what happens to you.

Many: With that seeing and care, God is always moving toward justice, liberation, and blessing, even when we cannot comprehend it.

One: This movement is not always a straight line or a swift path.

Many: In Hagar’s story, we see ourselves, our world, and all of the challenges of being different together.

One: We are bidden to ask, “how do we treat those who come from different places, live different lives, have different stories?”

Many: We are compelled to see and name injustice and our complicity and place in it, and we hear a voice of all who suffer at the hands of others.

One: Through all of this, we discover the God who both sees and sets free at the crossroads of history and hope.

Call to Prayer

Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying

Bulletin

Prayers of the Community

Prayer of Jesus (“A Celtic version of the Lord’s Prayer” from John Phillip Newell)

Holy One beyond all names

Eternal Wellspring

May love rise again in us today

With food for every table

Shelter for every family

And reverence for every life.

Forgive us our failings in love

And free us from all falseness

That the light of our souls may shine

And the strength of our spirits endure

For Earth and all its people

This day, tonight, and forever.

Amen

Sung Response

Lord, Listen to Your Children Praying

The musical score is written for two voices (Soprano and Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in 4/4 time and B-flat major. The melody is simple and repetitive, using eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics are: 'Lord, lis-ten to your chil-dren pray-ing. Lord, send your Spir-it in this place. Lord, lis-ten to your chil-dren pray-ing. Send us love; send us power; send us grace.'
